

Beginner Face-to-Face

Jobs and companies • Chatting about your job

By the end of this lesson, you will be able to have a casual chat about your job.

A. Key Vocabulary

Match the broken sentences

- | | |
|---------------------|--------------------|
| 1. Where do you | a) your boss? |
| 2. What's the name | b) work? |
| 3. What time do you | c) busy? |
| 4. Do you like | d) of your company |
| 5. Are you | e) get to work? |

B. Key Vocabulary

Find a friend, and have a conversation with at least three sentences each. For example:

Where do you work?

What's the name of the company?

No, far from here...

It's...

C. Use the language from this lesson.

List some things you can ask someone about their job. How would you ask them?

For example:

The name of their company: Where do you work? / What's the name of your company?

Their job, what they like about their job, etc.

A: b, d, e, a, c,
C: Suggested answers:
The name of their company: Where do you work? / What's the name of your company?
Their job: What's your job? / What do you do?
Where the company is: Do you work nearby? / Where is your company or office?
What they like about their job: Why did you choose that job? / What do you like about your job?
How long they've been doing it: How long have you been a... / How long have you been doing that?

Beginner Face-to-Face

Jobs and companies • Chatting about your job

By the end of this lesson, you will be able to have a casual chat about your job.

1. Man: Oh, hello.
2. Woman: Hi! I saw your name card, are you a teacher at EF?
3. Man: Yes, I am. What do you do?
4. Woman: I'm a shop assistant.
5. Man: Do you like your job?
6. Woman: Yes, I do. I can meet lots of interesting people.
7. Man: Really? I like my job too. I can help students learn English.
8. Woman: How long have you been a teacher in China?
9. Man: For six months. How about you? How long have you been a shop assistant?
10. Woman: Two years. Oh, this is my floor. See you later!
11. Man: Oh, bye! Ah, she was beautiful! What was her name? Where does she work? I forgot to ask!

Where do you work?

What's the name

of your company?

What time do you get to work?

Do you like your boss?

Are you

busy?